KEY CONCEPTS

OLIVE JAPAN® is an International Extra Virgin Olive Oil Competition with a comprehensive open-air Tradeshow (“Olive Marche”) event that brings olive producers and their products together with consumers. This is the most effective opportunity for producers to contact and meet with the most health consciousness Japanese consumers at the Tradeshow venue.

While the Tradeshow (“Olive Marche”) holds many opportunities for professionals, it is mainly focused on consumers. This is the defining character of the event, and the key distinctive feature of OLIVE JAPAN® from other major Competitions and Tradeshows.

The Venue, Futako Tamagawa is up-scale, but enjoys proximity to major parks and the Tama River with its broad, wide-open banks. For a Tokyo suburb, the area also has a high percentage of green spaces such as smaller parks and tree-lined avenues.

Because it is an aspirational area, it is the perfect place to host an event that brings olives to the Japanese urban life style, and saw great success at the launch in 2012.

Our objective is to communicate the potential of the Japanese market to international businesses and support promotional activities to help these businesses expand their presence in Japan through our programs.

We partner with area businesses in our development work at OLIVE JAPAN® making it an annual event that is grow with the community.

i.e. “Olive Marche” will be renamed as “OLIVE JAPAN SHOW” from 2018.

BENEFITS

OLIVE JAPAN® International Extra Virgin Olive Oil Competition

supports quality producers by identifying top attributes in key categories and supports consumers by identifying authentic extra virgin olive oil.

Having the competition prior to the marché sets the scene for strong marketing programs and productive promotional efforts.

OLIVE JAPAN® Marché Trade Show (will be renamed as “OLIVE JAPAN® SHOW from 2018) is developed for both professionals and consumers providing direct access for olive oil producers to influential Japanese olive oil and food business executives, food bloggers, and individual well traveled, aspirational high net worth consumers.

Competition-Win Producers who are looking for distribution have the opportunity to meet buyers or establish relationships. Producers who have already established a business relationship with an importer/distributor in Japan can sell directly at the venue.

OLIVE JAPAN® Seminars / Talk Show

promote education and about and appreciation of olives, olive oil and olive oil culture. The venue, located in a wealthy suburb of Tokyo, draws high net worth individuals who are a key part of the contemporary Japanese culinary, restaurant and retail business scene.

OLIVE JAPAN® provides the most effective key to access the market

NEW DEVELOPMENTS in 2017

In order to promote the real “quality” of olive oil, the Olive Oil Sommelier Association of Japan(OSAJ), an organizer of OLIVE JAPAN® developed 2 key strategic policies in 2017.

- 1, Marche Trade Show moved to be held in July for ONLY the competition winners could make exhibit.
- 2, Three books published, including, OLIVE JAPAN® Official Yearbook, which will be published annually.

OLIVE JAPAN® Chairman, Toshiya Tada wrote a book titled “Your Olive Oil maybe Fake...” This sensational titled book philosophy is almost same as Tom Mueller’s “Extra Virginity”. Chairman Tada mentioned as his intention to recall people about the real quality of olive oil.

After publishing above T. TADA’s book, OSAJ, an organizer of OLIVE JAPAN® published its first yearbook.

This unique book provide real choice and food pairing suggestions for consumers. Next OLIVE JAPAN® Yearbook will be issued in March 2018 !!

Publicity Program on YEARBOOK launched in 2018 for your promotion !

1st Official Yearbook published in 2016

"The Olive Oil Sommelier Association of Japan" and its logo, "OLIVE JAPAN" and its logo, and "Olive Oil Sommelier" are all the authorized trademarks registered. The Olive Oil Sommelier Association of Japan holds any rights for those names and trademarks.

Olive oil is now very familiar, even ubiquitous, but it remains somewhat mysterious.

We have made it our mission to acquire a deeper knowledge—a systematic trove of academic information as well as a thorough hands-on, practical familiarity with this widely-used food oil—and to share our knowledge and ideas with others.

Our mission extends further: we aim to send those we teach out into communities, businesses, and public media to educate and advise others in their turn. To this end, we have established a study program and certification scheme. Those who have successfully completed our course and examination are capable of bringing the world of olive oil to others, to broaden and enrich the gastronomic experience, whether it may be in professional food services or private homes.

In pursuing our mission, we have determined that we should evaluate olive oil and other premium oils impartially, purely on their own merits, and that we should share our views and information publicly without being constrained by affiliation to any particular producer or region. We believe also that the Olive Oil Sommeliers we certify will be better able to contribute in a wide variety of professional and educational endeavors if they also subscribe to this policy.

It is my sincere wish that you will support our mission and policy, as well as the activities of this association and the Olive Oil Sommeliers that we train.

Toshiya Tada, Chairman
The Olive Oil Sommelier Association of JAPAN (OSAJ)
