

ENRIQUE GARCIA TENORIO-BALMASEDA

Agricultural Engineer by the University of Seville (Spain), olive oil taster, jury member of various national and international competitions and expert in international business management by the School of Industrial Organization (EOI)

CEO from 1998, of the Foundation “Montes de Toledo Olive Oil”, responsible of management, promotion and product certification of this Protected Designation of Origin, drafting the application for EU registration and its specifications.

He has also participated in the creation and accreditation of the sensory laboratory of virgin olive oils owned by the foundation, which is recognized by IOOC and Spanish ministry of agriculture. External collaborator with the Spanish Accreditation Body (ENAC) as technical expert auditor for the accomplishment of product certification audits in the olive oil sector.

OLIVE JAPAN judge since 2016